

PLYMPTON HALIFAX CALISTHENICS CLUB

NEWSLETTER—SEPTEMBER 2015

The Calisthenics Competition season is over for another year and our results were fantastic! Congratulations to each and every girl for all they have achieved this year and a massive cheer for our truly wonderful coaches. The Tinies gaining 3 first placings and 1 Honourable Mention, the Sub Junior Section took out the Div 2 Team 1 and Teams 2 & 3 aggregate, the Junior team in a very close competition also won the Div 2 aggregate by 1 point! Our intermediates won their Song & Dance and received honourable mentions in March & Rods and 3rd in Aesthetic. Finally our Senior team in a high standard Div 1 comp winning the aggregate with 4 first and 2 second placings.

Many thanks to our very talented Costume Co-Ordinators who helped our teams with the presentation of the girls. Thank you parents for your commitment with bringing the girls to their weekly and extra lessons during the Competition season. And a special thank you to all girls who worked in two teams.

GOODLUCK

We would like to wish Monique from our Sub Junior team and Illandra from our Junior team the best of luck as they travel to Darwin with CASA for the upcoming NT competitions. If you would like to watch the teams before they leave their revue is this Friday 11 September, 2015.

AND

Good Luck also to our Junior Team who head off to Ballarat in the second week of the school holidays to compete at the Royal South Street Eisteddfods on the 9th October.

Enjoy yourselves! Trips like these are a great opportunity to compete at another level and of course leave you with wonderful memories.
